GRAVE CRISIS CONSIDERED BY U.N. O. SECURITY COUNCIL

RIBBENTROP ON STAND IN OWN DEFENSE

Personal Secretary Tells Tribunal of Secret Russian-German Pact to Divide Eastern Europe

GIRL IS STAR WITNESS

Nuernberg, March 28—(P)—Joachim von Ribbentrop, former German foreign minister, went to the stand in his own defense today shortly after his personal secretary had told the international military tribunal of a secret Russian-German pact in August, 1939, for the division of eastern Europe.

The secretary said the pact dividing eastern European territories, including Poland, was brought from Moscow by Ribbentrop before the outbreak of the war.

The witness, Margaret Blank, said the pact was in a sealed envelope bearing the inscription "German-Russian secret agreement," and that she had seen the original copy. She said she was charged with keeping its existence secret.

Miss Blank was permitted to testify only after the tribunal had considered the matter in private 75 minutes and over the strenuous objections of the Soviet prosecutor, Gen. R. A. Rudenko.

The witness also told the court Ribbentrop began peace overtures as early as the winter of 1943, when, with Adolf Hitler's permission, he had sent a Professor Berger to Switzerland for the purpose of finding a basis for peace negotiations through Bern, Stockholm, Madrid, Lisbon and the Vatican.

On April 20, 1945, Ribbentrop also notified Hitler that he wanted to undertake peace negotiations, she said, but Hitler would "sanction" negotiations only if military successes were present.

The defense then summoned Paul Otto Schmidt, Hitler's official interpreter, to testify.

Schmidt said Hitler and all top Nazis were "surprised and greatly depressed" at Britain's declaration in support of Poland at the start of the war.

Ribbentrop and the entire foreign office were "completely surprised," he added, at the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.

The woman witness barely had time to assert that a Russian-German treaty had been signed by Ribbentrop and Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov in Moscow when the Soviet prosecutor got to his feet and objected.

Gen. Rudenko charged that attempts of attorneys for both von Ribbentrop and Rudolf Hess to bring the reported secret pact into the trial were "purely provocative."

Alfred Seidl, counsel for Hess, jumped up with a declaration that only two copies of the treaty were made when it was signed in Moscow in August, 1939, and that von Ribbentrop took one to Berlin.

State College, March 28—(P)—Six years to the day have passed since Rachel H. Taylor, 17-year-old Pennsylvania State College freshman coed from Wildwood, N. J., was murdered here, but police were still confident today the mysterious slaying will be solved.

Col. C. M. Wilhelm, state police commissioner, declared in Harrisburg the case "has never been closed" and asserted the break may come at any time because "we have never given up."

State College's chief of police, John R. Juba, echoed Colonel Wilhelm's confidence, admitting a lack of new clues, but insisting "this murder will be cleared up one of these days."

The only homicide in State College history occurred on the misty early morning of May 28, 1940, shortly after Miss Taylor returned by bus after spending the Easter vacation at her home.

Her brutally beaten body, virtually naked, was discovered in the front yard by a janitor as he reported to work at a nearby school.

One state detective has been assigned permanently until the case is broken, Col. Wilhelm said, but withheld the detective's name.

Mrs. Reba Myers, who reported his disappearance to police.

A reward of $500 is still posted.

Bituminous Wage Dispute Is Fast Nearing a Showdown

Washington, March 28—(P)—Government labor officials appeared reluctant today to enter the bituminous coal dispute except in an eleventh hour effort to keep negotiations alive.

John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers president, has given notice to the operators there will be no soft coal mined next week if by midnight Sunday, he has said the 400,000 bituminous miners will "stay home with their families."

While the U. S. Conciliation Service has kept Commissioner Douglas Byrd outside the conference between Lewis and the operators for the past 17 days, neither side has moved to invite him.

Labor department officials indicated privately they are virtually resigned to a shutdown of at least one week.

Those close to the negotiations except the government, through Secretary of Labor Schwelbensch or the Conciliation Service, to make a stab at compromising the current negotiations—perhaps about Friday—if the present deadlock is not broken.

A year ago, the then secretary of labor, Frances Perkins, intervened two days before the 1944-45 contract expired with a set of compromise proposals which nearly brought about a quick settlement.

Gromyko Walks Out!

(NEA Telephoto)

Out-voted on his argument to postpone hearing Iran's complaint against the USSR, Ambassador Andrei A. Gromyko (middle, dark overcoat) stalks stolidly away from the United Nations Security Council meeting in New York, with reporters crowding close for a statement. "I have nothing to say," he told them.

Need of State Policemen At Westinghouse Being Probed

Pittsburgh, March 28—(P)—Acting under instructions from Governor Martin, State Secretary of Labor and Industry William H. Chesnut today began investigating necessity for presence of state policemen at strike-bound plants of Westinghouse Electric Corporation.

Upon arrival last night, the labor secretary said: "My job here is to investigate the necessity for the presence of state police. I hope to make a short job of it, for the sake of the workman. That is all I can say at this time."

He emphasized he had no instructions from the governor for any other sort of investigation.

Some 270 state policemen, 24 of them mounted, and about 50 deputy sheriffs stood by yesterday to preserve order while more than 1,000 supervisory and "white collar" workers entered the big East Pittsburgh plant, closed the last 72 days in the nation-wide walkout of 75,000 Westinghouse production workers, members of the CIO-United Electrical Workers.

The company said it expected to have 7,000 such employed at work in the plant by the end of the week. It said no production workers would be called, but that white collar workers were needed to plan for some $800,000,000 worth of that production might be resumed actual or potential business, so as soon as the strike ends.

The Steel City CIO Industrial Union Council announced formation of a citizens' committee to protest use of state police.

State Senator John Deni, Westmoreland county Democrat, said at a meeting of the committee: "The governor gave Pennsylvania its blacklists day in labor history in two generations when he sent police to Westinghouse."

York, March 28—(P)—The body of Jack J. Miller, 27-year-old filling station operator who disappeared a week ago, was found yesterday in a water-filled quarry near Hallam, seven miles east of York.

Coroner Lester J. Sell ordered an autopsy today after finding marks about Miller's head. He withheld filing of a death certificate pending outcome of an investigation by state police and county authorities.

Sell said the body may have been in the water four or five days. State police were told Miller had $800 in his pockets when he vanished. He lived with his mother, Mrs. Reba Myers, who reported his disappearance to police.

REUTHER WINS PRESIDENCY OF AUTO UNION

Thomas Defeated As Head of UAW By Slim Margin of 125 Votes In Turbulent Election

PROGRAM IS OUTLINED

Atlantic City, March 28—(P)—Walter Reuther, newly-elected president of the CIO United Auto Workers launched his big union toward new spheres of influence today as his defeated rival announced he would seek another union office.

Reuther defeated R. J. Thomas, president for seven years, for the leadership yesterday by the slim margin of 125 votes in a turbulent four-hour rollcall at the union convention, marked by fist-fighting and confusion. The official count was 4,445 to 4,320.

Another political fight bobbed up as Thomas accepted friends' urgings and decided to seek one of the two vice presidencies in today's elections.

A big cheer went up from the floor when the defeated president accepted nomination for a race with Richard T. Leonard and Melvin Bishop, Detroit regional directors.

Several other likely candidates withdrew, and Thomas' entry side-tracked a possibility that the officers might be unseated.

The Reuther forces had been reported agreeable to election of Leonard and Bishop, the former an original Thomas supporter and the latter an "independent."

Chief interest, however, was centered on Reuther's plans for the UAW-CIO's future.

Reuther told a news conference after his election that he would work toward:

1—Organizing farm equipment workers in a big way.

2—Industry-wide collective bargaining in the automotive industry based on equal pay for equal work.

3—A bigger, stronger and more unified union, developing responsibility in all plants so that workers would not strike unless authorized by the international union.

4—A guaranteed annual wage for the workers.

5—Organizing the white-collar workers, engineers and technicians of the auto industry.

He told the convention in a speech after his victory that he wanted to "take my place by the side of Philip Murray and help him carry part of the burden he has to carry as president of the CIO."

Reuther said that under his leadership the UAW would be a "source of strength" for Murray and the CIO.

Thomas has been urged by friends to seek one of the vice-presidential posts, but there were reports he might become a CIO delegate to the World Federation of Trade Unions in Paris.

Both vice-presidencies are vacant, one having been held by Reuther and the other by Richard T. Frankenstein, who is not seeking reelection.

George F. Addes, was expected to be re-elected secretary-treasurer with little or no opposition.

Held as Spy

(NEA Telephoto)

Nikolai Gregorovich Redin, 29-year-old Russian Navy Lieutenant, is in jail at Portland, Ore., charged with espionage against the United States. Arrested at Portland as he was about to board a Soviet ship, he was the first Russian to be seized on spy charges since before World War II.

Singer Co. Is Defendant In Suit By O.P.A.

Kansas City, March 28—(P)—The office of Price Administration filed suit in federal court today asking damages of $1,125,000 from the Singer Sewing Machine Company for alleged violations of maximum price regulations.

The complaint, filed by Dick Bennett, OPA district enforcement attorney, charged the company had violated price ceiling regulations and had forced purchasers of sewing machines to buy other commodities, contrary to restrictions against their sales, the petition said.

Violations complained of had occurred throughout the United States.

Specifically, the complaint charged the company sold used sewing machines at new machine ceiling prices.

The OPA said a survey of regional outlets showed actual overcharges of $375,000 in sale of used sewing machines between July 1, 1945, and Feb. 25, 1946.

An injunction is sought to require the company to determine properly the maximum price for used sewing machines and to refrain from selling at prices in excess of the maximum allowable and to refrain from requiring the purchase of other commodities.

Bennett said the case originated from the complaint of a Kansas City housewife several months ago that a Singer outlet store here would not sell her a sewing machine unless she also bought a sewing cabinet.

This led to investigation of other stores in Kansas City and St. Joseph, Mo., and the records of 38 stores in this area at the central office in St. Louis.

Untimely Death of Popular High School Student Mourned By Many In the Community

A tragedy that has cast a pall of gloom, not only in the East Side family of the victim, hereafter for a second time in a year, but among the students and faculty of the Warren high school and community generally, occurred in the apartment being occupied by Mr. and Mrs. William F. Maier at the Warren airport about 2:45 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, which claimed the life of Ruby Kiernan, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kiernan, 1301 Pennsylvania avenue, east.

The body of Miss Kiernan, member of the 1946 graduating class of the high school, was found by her sister, Mrs. Maier, shortly before three o'clock, sprawled on a bed, a bullet wound through this right temple, and a 22 calibre Harrington & Richards revolver lying on the bed about six inches from the right hand.

Screams of Mrs. Maier attracted her husband, "Bud" Maier, flying instructor at the field, who was just landed with a student, and Virgil S. "Ship" King, who had reached the airport in a ship about the same time. Laverne Bean and Norma Barnhart, who were in the office of the building at the time, stated that they did not hear the shot.

Manager King put in a hasty call for a physician, but an examination revealed that the young woman was past medical aid. She was pronounced dead by Dr. A. F. Yerg, and Coroner Ed Lowrey was summoned. He in turn notified the police department and an investigation was launched by Chief of Police George Haehn, Lieut. M. Egan, Patrolman William Hewitt and the coroner.

Mrs. Maier informed the officials that she was not aware of the fact that her sister was in the apartment until she heard a shot. Upon investigating she discovered the body of the girl on the bed and at first was inclined to believe that her sister was playing a joke on her. She said the head was covered with part of a woolen blanket which had been spread on top of the bed clothing. Pulling the blanket aside she was horrified to see the wound in the head and the weapon near the right hand.

The unfortunate young girl had been afflicted with diabetes for the past six years, but at no time appeared to be downcast over her condition. She was taking a post-graduate course in the Warren high school where she was considered one of the most popular students. She worked afternoons in the Paul Coe wallpaper and paint store.

Checking her movements yesterday the officers were informed that Miss Kiernan attended the morning classes Wednesday, walking home with a friend Beverly Adams, also employed at the Coe (Turn to Page Fifteen)

Northern Lights Cause Severe Interruption

New York, March 28—(P)—Aurora borealis, which has been troubling communications facilities periodically for three weeks, struck with renewed force early today, causing one of the most severe interruptions since it began acting up.

Both radio communications and news circuits which operate over land were affected by the new outbreak which started at 5 a. m. today.

The Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc., said its radio signals between the United States and Europe were on an "up and down" basis which prevented normal service. Some service was maintained, however.

Alleged Spy Is Awaiting Legal Advice

Portland, Ore., March 28—(P)—Soviet naval officer accused of espionage turned today to legal advice as he prepared for a decision on whether to accept or reject removal to Seattle for trial.

Lt. Nicolai G. Redin, 29, arrested by the FBI Tuesday night on a warrant charging he induced an unnamed person to give him data on the destroyer tender U. S. S. Yellowstone, had the aid of Russia's top west coast representative to help him make the decision.

Redin spent his second night in jail under $25,000 bail but Soviet Counsel-General Michael S. Vavilov, who flew here from San Francisco, said he would post the bail today unless Redin, member of the Soviet purchasing commission at Seattle, were released on his own recognizance.

While official Washington withheld comment on the case, the house committee on Un-American activities was told by Elmer W. Sherwood, American Legion Americanism director, that foreign nations are trying to plant agents into veterans' organizations.

The committee, following a closed session yesterday, reported that it would send an investigator to Canada to confer with officials on the alleged Soviet spy ring in that country and would start hearings within the next two weeks on reported attempts to steal U. S. atomic bomb secrets.

There was no immediate claim, however, of a link between Redin and other reported activity.

Subsidy Plan For Buildings Is Supported

Washington, March 28—(P)—Housing Expediter Wilson Wyatt's request for authority to spend up to $600,000,000 in building material bonuses was described before a senate committee today as a "reasonable" one.

Civilian Production Administrator John D. Small, in defending the request, said "we will use only as much of the money as we need," and then only as "a last resort."

The subsidy plan was voted out of the administration's vast home-building program by the house. The senate banking committee now is being asked to restore it.

Small testified the money might be used in many ways to stimulate the production of materials that go into house building. He cited "premium payments" to a plant for overtime operations as one.

As the administration thus applied fresh pressure for its home-owners program it ran into a Republican contention that part of it is a "pork barrel" scheme.

Even before Small appeared to renew pleas for the subsidy fund to boost production of scarce materials, however, Senator Capehart (R-Ind.) voiced his "pork barrel" charge. He referred, he told reporters, to Housing Expediter Wilson W. Wyatt's plans for the government to guarantee markets for prefabricated dwellings and construction materials.

Duquesne Decision Delayed for Time

Pittsburgh, March 28—(P)—Decision by a three-man arbitration board in the Duquesne Light Co. wage dispute, due to be handed down March 30, has been postponed until April 12.

The arbitrators requested the 13-day delay, which was approved by the company and the Independent Association of Employees of the Duquesne Light Co.

Aaron Horvitz, board chairman said "the amount of testimony has presented an impossible task for arbitrators to encompass by March 30."

The union asks a 37 percent pay raise for nearly 3,500 workers plus 264 percent of one month's pay for each employee to make up for an alleged "Little Steel Formula" shortage.

Future of Price Controls Reported in Terrific Danger

Washington, March 28—(P)—A congressional friend of President Truman's economic program said today the future of price controls is in "terrific danger."

After six weeks of clam-bang public hearings before the house banking committee on legislation to prolong OPA's life for a year beyond June 30, Rep. Monroney (D-Okla.), a member of the committee, told newsmen:

"There is real danger—terrific danger—that the OPA law will be amended to death."

However, the administration's economic high command arranged another committee appearance to reply to the vigorous and sometimes bitter attacks levelled at OPA by the National Association of Manufacturers and various segments of industry and agriculture.

Chester Bowles, economic stabilizer, and Paul Porter, who succeeded Bowles as OPA Administrator, are expected to testify again before the committee closes its public hearings tomorrow.

The NAM has asked that OPA be allowed to die June 30 when the present act expires. The United States Chamber of Commerce called for an end of price controls not later than October 31, and lifting of rent ceilings by next March 31.

IRANIAN ISSUE CAUSES SPLIT AT MEETING

Soviet Delegate Expected To Attend Executive Session Being Held During Afternoon

SITUATION EXPLOSIVE

BULLETIN

New York, March 28—(P)—Russia backtracked slightly today on its sensational walk out from the United Nations Security Council, but the council still faced a critical decision on whether Russia's absence would virtually paralyze it.

Secretary of State Byrnes and Edward R. Stettinius conferred with their advisers at length in preparation for this afternoon's secret session of the council. Indications were that Byrnes would insist that no single member, however powerful, had the right to hamstring the council's work and that hearing of the Iranian case should proceed with or without Soviet Ambassador Andrei Gromyko in attendance.

New York, March 28—(P)—The United Nations Security Council was called into executive session today to discuss grave problems of procedure raised when Soviet delegate Andrei Gromyko walked out on the council late yesterday after it refused to postpone consideration of the Iranian issue.

A Soviet spokesman indicated Gromyko would attend the session—scheduled for 4 p. m. (EST)—with the understanding that the council would not go into the merits of the Iranian dispute.

The spokesman's statement informed the general understanding that the Soviet delegate had not divorced himself from the council but was merely standing pat on his determination not to participate in an discussion of the Iranian case prior to April 10—a deadline he apparently fixed on instructions from Moscow.

The decision to go into executive session, announced by Chairman Quo Tai-Chi of China just before the council adjourned at 6:45 p. m., apparently precluded until Friday any further open discussion of Iran's protests against prolongation of occupation by Soviet troops, alleged Russian interference in her internal affairs and designs on her rich oil reserves near the Caspian.

The Iranian case was presented by Ambassador Hussein Ala—who called the situation in Iran "explosive" and a threat to world peace—after Gromyko had dramatically absented himself and hastened with his staff to the Soviet consulate general in East 61st Street for consultation and possibly to seek new instructions from Moscow.

Polish Delegate Oscar Lange, who voted with Russia throughout Gromyko's effort to keep the Iranian question from the council, said he did not consider the Soviet delegate had withdrawn from the council.

"It was just a matter of the Soviet delegate absenting himself," Lange said.

Hussein Ala said Soviet officials proposed that:

(1) Soviet troops remain in some parts of Iran indefinitely.

(2) The Iranian government should recognize internal autonomy for Azerbaijan, with the provincial premier becoming governor general, with the provincial ministers of foreign affairs and war abolished, with 30 per cent of the provincial revenue paid to the Iranian central government and all correspondence with the central government conducted in the Persian language.

(3) The Soviet government should abandon demands for an oil concession and an Iranian-Russian joint stock company should be set up with 51 per cent of the shares held by the Soviet Union and 49 per cent by Iran.

One of the largest and most interesting meetings of Warren Lodge No. 223, B. P. O. Elks is expected next Tuesday when District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler Lewis Minnick, of St. Marys, will be present to install new officers for the coming term. He will be assisted by members of the Warren Past Exalted Rulers' Association, who will entertain Mr. Minnick and other distinguished visitors at a dinner at the Carver Hotel preceding the meeting.

CHILD INJURED

James Confer, six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Confer, 815 Fourth avenue, was injured about 7:45 p. m. Wednesday in the vicinity of St. Joseph's church, Beech street, when he ran from between two parked cars directly into the path of a third vehicle. He was taken to Warren General Hospital by the driver, Gerald Jordan, of Clarendon, and treated for a bruise over his left eye and a fractured left leg. His condition today is described as pretty good.

GOING TO EUROPE

Instructions and travel orders are being issued by the War Department to approximately 1,200 women and children who will participate in the first mass movement of military dependents to the European theatre of operations. Approximately 58 are Pennsylvanians. The movement is scheduled to get under way about the middle of April. Those selected for the trip were chosen by the theatre commander on the basis of priorities established in the War Department principally in accordance with the length of time the applicants for their transportation agreed to continue service overseas. The April contingent is composed of members of the immediate families of some 700 applicants of whom 24 are enlisted men. This total represented all enlisted men and all officers who requested transportation for their dependents during April.

Home Gardens Vital For 1946 Season

If commitments to starving peoples of other lands are to be met, it is imperative that we have as many, if not more home gardens during the 1946 growing season than we had at any time during the war years, says County Agent O. C. Tritt in urging gardeners to plan their layout and order seeds in time to get peak production.

Only by careful planning can available garden space be fully utilized to provide quality vegetables in good quantity. Such planning means proper attention to fertilizer and organic matter that may be needed, arrangement of the various crops to keep as much space in full use all summer, and permitting some rotation so certain crops are not grown on the same spot, year after year.

Right now many gardeners are sowing seeds in hotbeds, greenhouses, and even in their homes to assure themselves of a good supply of seedlings when transplanting time comes. Hardy plants like early cabbage, cauliflower, lettuce, onions, and beets can be started in February; tomatoes, peppers, and eggplants in March; and squash, cucumbers, and melons in late April or May.

Because of the many uncertainties in the international food situation the county agent says "Grow your own and be sure" is a splendid slogan for most families in thinking about the home garden.

Bids Opened For Punxsy Job To Halt Floods

Pittsburgh, March 28—Colonel W. E. Lorence, army district engineer here, yesterday opened bids for the construction of the Punxsutawney Channel Improvement, unit No. one, Mahoning Creek, at Punxsutawney and vicinity. The Medco Construction Company, Devon, Chester county, submitted a low bid of $496,968. The estimate by army engineers was $542,137.35. Among the other bidders were, Camarco Contractors, Inc., Carmel, N. Y., $622,857; Highway Contractors, Inc., Norfolk, Va., $627,992; E. J. Albrecht Company, Chicago, $605,707, and the S. J. Groves and Sons Company, Minneapolis, $537,059.30.

This contract will consist of widening, deepening and realigning the channel of Mahoning creek; protection of existing bridge piers and extending wing walls on bridge abutments; relocation of sanitary sewers and sewer siphons; relocation of a cast iron water line and alterations of existing pipe outlets. The work is to be completed in 180 days.

RUSSELL

Russell, March 25—The Lady Pine Grove Rebekah Lodge meeting was held Thursday evening. The following officers were elected: Noble grand, Clara Bailey; vice grand, Edna Safford; recording secretary, Viola Peterson; trustee for 18 months, Florence Haley. At the close of the meeting there was a social time with games and a luncheon was served. Mrs. Ray Shields was presented a lovely gift by the members.

On Friday evening Miss Janet Phillips was honored at a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Phillips at North Warren. Those present at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Scott Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ramsdell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Anderson, Robert Mack, Roger Johnson and Ed Brinnard.

Attention is called to an omission in the report of the 25th anniversary of the Lady Pine Grove Rebekah Lodge, in that a trio consisting of Marjorie and Margaret Ramsdell and Bernice Lindell, accompanied by Lorna Ramsdell, sang two selections.

The Methodist church has been newly redecorated with wall paper, varnish and paint.

James Akeley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Akeley, who has been in military service for the past 2½ years and served for the past twenty months in England, France and Germany, has arrived home. He received his honorable discharge Friday at Camp Dix, New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brannstrom are now residing at their new home, Main street.

The W.B.A. meeting was held with Miss Inez Gregory Monday evening with sixteen members present. Games were played. Mrs. Jay Wiltzie was awarded the prize. The hostess served refreshments. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Van Orsdale.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Perry and family of Warren were Sunday callers of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Phillips.

There will be a special program sponsored by the W. C. T. U. to be held in the church Monday evening, April 1 at 8 o'clock. Awards will be presented to the winners of the poster-essay contest. Mrs. Muir of Warren will present a flannelgraph story and special music will be furnished by members of the Russell school. All are invited to attend the service.

NEW FIELD OF OPPORTUNITY

We shall follow with interest the $250,000 libel suit brought by Lt.-Col. Frank Toscani of New York against John Hersey, author of "A Bell for Adano," Hersey's publisher, and those who converted the book into a hit movie and play. For if Colonel Toscani wins, it may develop that he has opened up a new and highly lucrative field of endeavor.

During the war Toscani was situated in Licata, Sicily, as senior civil affairs officer. Mr. Hersey, who visited him there for a week, tells in his book of a "Major Joppollo," who was senior civil affairs officer in the fictitious town of Adano, Italy.

Mr. Hersey's hero had, as we recall, a brief, mild, platonic, and highly honorable affair of the heart with an Italian girl named Tina. Colonel Toscani emphatically implies that he had no affair of the heart with a girl named Tina or anyone else, and states that his wife is "emotionally upset" at the book's reference to the major's friendship with Tina.

Major Joppollo secured a bell for Adano's city hall. Col. Toscani doesn't say anything about getting a bell for Licata. As a matter of fact, neither he nor Licata is mentioned or referred to in the book.

You can see how it will be if the colonel wins. Say an author writes a novel about a bank teller in the fictitious town of East Wallop, Ind., who embezzles $50,000, runs off with the assistant cashier's wife, is deserted by her, spends the money, takes to drink, and winds up a remorseful bum.

A bank teller in East St. Louis, Ill., promptly sues for $1,000,000. His books are in perfect order. He is a church-goer and a family man of spotless moral character who never touches a drop. He collects $25,873.19.

No time should be lost by the workers seeking the construction of a dam to form an artificial lake in the valley of the West Branch of the Tionesta creek. It would be the most forward move undertaken yet to make this area a great recreation spot. Water is needed to make a complete playground. Every aid should be given the boosters for the project and the Chamber of Commerce will undoubtedly extend every possible support needed.

Routing of Route 6 makes little difference to the average motorist of this section just so the highway is built. The old concrete roadway is obsolete and too light for modern day traffic and to keep Route 6 a desirable highway it must be rebuilt and soon. It is to be hoped that the squabble in the State Highway Department will not affect plans for the rebuilding of the Route.

Spring housecleaning is under way in every section of Warren. Paint brushes are flying and alterations are being made. The war years left Warren looking rather drab and scores of homes and buildings will be repainted this spring.

Warren county continues in fifth place in the state for the number of graded potatoes sacked under the Pennsylvania Co-operative Label. Warren folk can aid in this support given the farmers by asking for Warren county grown spuds when they order.

Need of a repair shop at the Warren airport is becoming imperative. With numbers of new planes being brought to Warren by local enthusiasts, the need for quick repairs is badly felt.

LENTEN SERMONETTE

INCREASE OUR FAITH

Rev. William T. Lane, Emanuel Evangelical and Reformed Church

Luke 17:5

One result of unbelief in our day is our striving to live a maximum life on a minimum of faith; and it cannot be done. The ultimate truth can never be uttered. It can only be acted.

As far back as human records go men lived and died by faith in God. That belief was not put there by logic. No man has ever been argued into faith in God and no man was ever argued out of it. The sources of belief go back into human experience.

When a man loses his faith in God it is not some logical process, but because of some inner conflict, disaster, betrayal or neglect in his life.

Take the experience of those men who walked on the earth and talked with Jesus. In fellowship with Him a great change was wrought in their lives. They saw something more Godlike in Him than they had ever seen before. Up to the cross they saw Him go facing all that fate and His foes could do, trusting in the power of love alone. They saw Him die, and then they saw defeat turned into victory. He rose from the grave and gave to the world a whole new philosophy of life. He opened new vistas of living that had not been dreamed of before in the whole history of mankind. When He rose the whole world rose with Him, for with His resurrection He lifted man from the darkness of the world into the light of heaven. For the first time in the history of man there was a way in which man might have salvation from his sins and also have a victory over death.

Those of us who have had fellowship with Him believe in

Hit Him Again, He's Trying To Get Up!

Washington Daybook

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Very little attention has been paid in recent years to what is happening in the Supreme Court of the United States.

A little off-the-record digging among the justices themselves and the legal fraternity in general will immediately raise the question: are the members of the court becoming our No. 1 chore boys?

There are 14 decisions pending now which await the return of Justice Robert H. Jackson from his assignment to the Nazi war crime trials in Nuremberg. These cases will all have to be reheard. With all due respects to the abilities of Justice Jackson, there are probably dozens of legal lights in the country who could have been appointed to the chore in Europe without disrupting the proceedings of the Supreme Court.

In 1942 former Associate Justice Owen J. Roberts was called off the court to head the first Pearl Harbor investigation. Shortly after that Justice James F. Byrnes was called down to become a sort of No. 2 President, operating principally on the home front.

In the meantime, politics, which is never supposed to touch the court, has tried to touch the court. Justice Jackson has been discussed freely as a possible candidate for the governorship of New York this fall. He probably won't be, but the time was when you didn't dare discuss the politics of a U. S. Supreme Court justice like that.

Even more in the political limelight is Justice William O. Douglas. It's no secret any longer that President Roosevelt would have liked to have had him as a running mate in 1944. It's no secret either that some important Democratic party leaders were putting pressure on him to accept the job of Secretary of the Interior, when Harold L. Ickes resigned. According to best reports, it was Chief Justice Harlan F. Stone who put his foot down on that move.

ALTHOUGH seven of the nine present justices were appointed by President Roosevelt and one by President Truman, there probably is less unanimity on the court than ever before. In the current session, only half of the 70-odd opinions handed down have been unanimous and the total doesn't include the four-four ties, of which there are 14, awaiting the return of Justice Jackson.

This is an unhappy state of affairs so far as the lawyers of the land are concerned. There is no indication now that the situation can be remedied soon. If political trends pull either Douglas or Jackson out of the court, or any other vacancies should result from deaths or retirement, it is considered likely here that President Truman would appoint either Labor Secretary Lewis B. Schwellenbach or Treasury Secretary Fred M. Vinson to the job.

In neither case would this change the complexion of the court much. Both are considered conservatives. Douglas is considered a liberal and Jackson a conservative, but the lines are no longer well defined. According to Chief Justice Stone, the most important thing now is that the court be left alone to get some work done.

BROADWAY

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK—I noted the other day a story that commercial passengers again were taking the east-west Atlantic trip by steamer, the first since before the war. It brought back pleasant memories of the less serious days when the emphasis was on trivia and good times, before the world turned to more intelligent, deeper, and unfortunately more frenetic topics.

I had a lengthy stint of ship news reporting, back before the war, and enjoyed it thoroughly, even those grim, freezing mornings when I'd have to get up after a few hours' sleep to catch the early cutter which met the entering liners at Quarantine.

After September, 1939, things were different for the ship news gang.

THE same fellows covered the same waterfront. But the approach to news was different.

Everything had to have a war angle. I remember the first such story I covered. I was on a Swedish boat—the Gripsholm, Kungsholm or some such—and I recognized Lauritz Melchior, the Met's Wagnerian tenor. He rushed over to shake hands, pulling his tiny, dainty wife along as she wore some sort of kite, and he talked a mile a minute about what was happening abroad. He insisted that I come with him and meet a priest he had become friendly with on the trip home. The priest was an American who had his face slapped when he attempted to stop the beating of an aged Jew by a Nazi storm trooper. It was my first talk with anyone personally affected by Nazi brutality. My enjoyment of the trivial side of ship news reporting thereupon abated abruptly.

I THOUGHT of it one day last week when I looked in a mirror to tie my tie. I had read the day before about the return to some sort of normalcy of passenger traffic on the Atlantic, and as I wound my cravat about my neck, it occurred that I had learned to tie that particular knot on board a ship as it steamed into the East River.

I always had tied my tie in the usual, one-flap-over fashion, but sometimes, looking at pictures in the papers, had admired the wide, tapering effect accomplished by the Duke of Kent. So one morning on board ship I noted the fellow with whom I was talking, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., was wearing just that sort of knot. I asked would he show it to me, and he immediately, and with easy amiability, agreed. He took off the tie, put it on again and tied it several times for me, until I had learned the technique.

I still tie my ties the way Young Doud taught me and I wish the world were as peaceful as it was at that carefree prewar moment, when the largest problem seemed to be how to wind a cravat correctly.

From where I sit, by Joe Marsh

Ben Ryder and the Wanderlust

During the war, Ben Ryder talked about the trips he'd take when gasoline rationing was ended. Used to pore over roadmaps—checking mileages and charting routes.

Now Ben's taking quite a lot of ribbing. Soon as rationing was lifted, he decided he liked staying home, putting in the garden, playing chess, sharing a pleasant glass of beer with friends.

"Shucks," admits Ben sheepishly, "as soon as you can go, then it's just as good as having gone."

You might as well stay home—enjoy your friends and family. From where I sit, that's a pretty common trait in human nature.

Take that glass of beer, for instance. During Prohibition, Ben was nursing an insatiable thirst. But come repeal, Ben suddenly finds he's happy with a friendly, moderate glass of beer—and nothing more. Yep—just tell folks the sky's the limit, and they'll settle for a piece of friendly earth.

Boyle Discovers Divorce For Men In Egypt Is Very Simple

By HAL BOYLE
Cairo, March 27—(AP)—Divorce is easy for men in Egypt. They just call in the wife, say "go" to her three times and they are free men again.

But for the ladies it is no such simple matter. "Here a woman not only can't say 'go,' one girl told me. 'She can't even say 'come'." For getting married to a man of her choice is of much more concern to the average educated young Egyptian girl than how she will dispose of him later, if she decides to change her mind.

Meeting the young man himself is the biggest problem in this old land where courtship has many more barriers in its path than marriage. This is because the old Moslem families have lifted some strict rules of feminine seclusion, but don't yet by any means allow their daughters the freedom girls have in western countries.

Girls sit in co-educational classes with men in the universities, but they can't meet them outside. At least theoretically they can't. But of course love laughs at locksmiths in Egypt as well as in Europe and America.

"We are totally different from our mothers," said one young university graduate who precipitated a crisis in her own family by taking an editorial post in a magazine where men were also employed. "We are different, but we have a long way to go. My own mother saw no man before or after marriage for years, except her brothers and her married uncles."

"Men servants in her household didn't see her. She didn't go to school. She was taught in her own house by woman teachers. Now she does go out and she finally allowed me to go to school and later to go to work.

"But we can't dance or go out on a date with strangers, and all men are considered strangers to us except our brothers and our married cousins. Our social life consists of trips to cinemas and evenings at home."

Girls go to the movies in groups, never alone or with a boy friend. A girl usually can't even invite her boy friend to her home, because that would bring up the question of how she met him.

The telephone is playing a major role in breaking down these old standards, but a young man embarked on phone courtship can't simply ring up his girl at her home. If he did her scandalized parents would refuse to call Fatima to the phone. So he has his sister do the calling and then he takes over. His girl in the meantime at her end of the line, has to keep up the pretense she is talking to his sister.

This matter of courting, of course, becomes highly involved and ties up a lot of wires. In 1930 the Egyptian government helped to make up a financial deficit by putting an overtime charge on phone conversations lasting more than three minutes. Love balanced the budget.

Twin 'Girls' Become Twin Boys After Visit to Barber

Married Mar. 21st

Miss Jeannette L. Olson, daughter of Mrs. Edith Olson, Clark street, and F. Elmer Werlin, of Warren, were united in marriage Thursday afternoon, March 21, at three o'clock. The double ring ceremony was performed by Judge Allison D. Wade in his chambers at the court house, in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride wore a street length dress of champagne crepe, with brown accessories and a corsage of deep yellow roses and gladioli. Attending the bride was her sister, Mrs. Keith McIntosh, who wore a dress of lime green and black, with black accessories and corsage of red roses. The bride's mother wore a black pin stripe suit and corsage of sweet peas.

Bert Werlin, of Warren, was best man for his brother. Following the ceremony, a reception for 40 guests was held at the YWCA.

After a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., the couple will reside in Warren.

Mrs. Werlin has been employed in the cashier's office of the E. I. du Pont de Nemours Company, Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Mr. Werlin is an employee of the Phenix Furniture Company here.

In the first rite, Rev. Wygant united in marriage Gene A. Brecht and Doris Loretta Gnage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gnage, of Warren. The bride wore a red and black suit, with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations and baby's breath.

Following immediately was the service which united Allen D. Lowers, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Lowers, Youngville, and June Emeline Brecht. The bride, in this instance, wore brown accessories with a suit of beige, and had white carnations and baby's breath for her shoulder bouquet.

A family dinner was served at the Brecht home immediately after the second service.

The two couples have returned from a wedding trip to Buffalo and other points of interest. The Brechts to reside in North Warren and Mr. and Mrs. Lowers to make their home in Youngville.

Lenten Drama

A dramatic service, entitled "Were You There?", will be presented by PAK members for their regular Sunday evening worship period in First Presbyterian church on March 31st. Members of the First Methodist Youth Fellowship will be guests for the service, as well as for the supper preceding it. Dick Kerr will play the organ prelude and Sally Swick will preside. Scripture and prayer to open the worship will be given by Betty Lauffenberger. Dick Fosberg will be heard in the role of reader for the drama, which is based on the beautiful negro spiritual "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?", with Charles Sires handling the vocal continuity.

Colored slides will be used in the presentation, opening with Christ in the Garden of Gethsemane, Dick Fosberg as Peter and Ray Johnson as Caiaphas. Christ Before Pilate will follow, Fred Kleschauer having the part of Pilate. Next in order will be Pilate Washes His Hands. Charles Cochrane will be heard as Simon of Cyrene and Albert Marrer as John. The next slide is Golgotha, a trio singing "Hallelujah Lord Jesus." These vocalists will be Ruth Beatty, Marilyn Rutledge, Nancy Lee Plummer. The service will be concluded with a familiar hymn and the PAK benediction.

Supper will be served at the usual hour, 6:10 p. m., preceded by a very important rehearsal of the PAK Choir. Preparations are under way for the choir to sing in a Palm Sunday evening presentation and it is important that all be in attendance.

Tourney Lead

Another round of play in the inter-city cribbage tournament took place last evening with the team of the Veterans Club winning over the Legion entry by a score of 73 to 71. Two overtime periods had to be played to break a tie that existed. This gives the Vets continued leadership in the league with three wins out of three starts.

The Moose last night played the Elks and took over the antlered herd by a score of 79 to 41. The Moose have won two of their three games played; the Elks have taken one and lost two and the Legion players have not taken a match.

The next series of games will take place next Monday evening with the Legion at the Elks and the Vets at the Moose Club. The tourney is attracting much attention and many kibitzers watch the play.

Q. My National Service Life Insurance was issued on 4 December 1942. How much longer may I carry this insurance at the present premium. (N. G. H.)

A. Public Law 118, 79th Congress, approved July 2, 1945, automatically extends all NLSI (5 year level premium, term policies) issued on or before December 31, 1945, for an additional three (3) years. In other words your policy, taken out on 4 December 42, will be carried at the same premium until 4 December 1950, unless sooner converted.

Q. How are disability pensions figured? (W. E. T.)

A. I am assuming that your question refers to pensions given for wartime service connected disability. The Veteran's Administration Medical Examination Board determines the percentage of disability to be given in each case individually. The pension is paid for the percentage of disability and is computed at $11.50 for each 10% of disability up to a total of $115.00 per month.

Restaurant Menus Must Bear Notice

Under an amendment to the Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation issued by OPA this week, the following statement is required on menus of all public eating places:

"We (name of restaurant) in cooperation with the Federal Emergency Management Agency for feeding the starving peoples of the world, are endeavoring to conserve on the use of oil and wheat. We are required to offer the same portions of food as during the period of April 3-10, 1943. However, the following restrictions are being made:

"Second slice of bread with each meal. Basket of bread rolls on each table. Extra helping of salad oil or dressing will be served to you only if you request it."

Restaurants which during the April, 1943 period followed the practice of reducing prices at customer's request when above restrictions were practiced, must continue to do so under the new ruling. Others need not.

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority

There are a great many players who consider Howard Schenken one of the greatest rubber bridge players in the country. He gets every trick out of a hand.

Schenken played today's hand at four spades doubled.

West opened the nine of diamonds, Schenken won with the ace and cashed the king, discarding a heart from dummy. Then he led the jack of diamonds, West ruffed with the deuce of spades and dummy over-ruffed with the three.

The jack of hearts was led, West won with the king and returned a heart, East winning with the ace. The third heart was won by Schenken with the ten-spot. The club finesse was taken, the ace of clubs cashed and the six of clubs ruffed with the seven of spades.

Now you can see that West was helpless. When Schenken led the eight of hearts, West had four spades to the king-ten, while Schenken had the ace-queen-eight of spades and the jack in dummy. West could make only one trick.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stromdahl and Willard Stromdahl of Warren were guests at the Ross Walters home on Monday evening.

The lower fringes of the northern lights are about 60 miles above the earth.

Red Plant—Symbol of Industrial Might

This huge metallurgical plant, recently built in Kazak Republic, symbolizes the rapidly expanding Russian industrial might which has launched the USSR on a quest for raw materials, machinery, and markets throughout eastern Europe and the Orient. It is to factories like this that the Red Army is reported to have sent machines ripped from Manchurian plants.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

ROUTING NO. 6 TRAFFIC THROUGH WARREN

There seems to be a tendency to make the solution of Warren's through-traffic problem as complicated and costly as possible. After all we are not going to have quite the kind of volume of traffic that exists between Newark and the Hudson Tunnel. Yet the proposed plans are almost as elaborate as the Newark Skyway.

The scheme of going down the Mill-race and out Lexington Avenue would present enormous engineering problems plus the necessity of a new bridge across the Conewango. And how to get back to Pennsylvania Avenue without razing half of the United Refinery or without bad curves has not been satisfactorily explained.

The latest proposal to come down Fourth Avenue and then out Conewango to join Pennsylvania Avenue again also involves a new bridge, two bad curves and a new bottleneck at the junction of Conewango and Pennsylvania Avenues. Also what's to be done about the NYC down the middle of Fourth Avenue?

Why hasn't the most obvious, logical and inexpensive solution been proposed to or by the Highway Engineers? Build an underpass at the PRR station and an overpass at FN Tower. (Both of these would have to be constructed anyway eventually, regardless of the route chosen, unless the railroads are moved). Then make Pennsylvania Avenue a one-way street, East-bound only, from the "point" at the Savings Bank to Conewango Avenue. Make Conewango Avenue a one-way street, West-bound only, from Third Street to the junction with Pennsylvania at Hazel, one-way with west-bound traffic only.

There will be objections raised, of course, to one-way streets. But how serious are they and how well founded? It is slightly inconvenient at times to be forced to go around an extra block in order to land where you want to go on a one-way street, but you soon get used to it. Parents on the West side of the Conewango and South of Fifth may object to going to Beaty School via the Fifth or Pennsylvania avenue bridges. But the decrease of the traffic hazard at Beaty by having car traffic in only one direction should more than compensate for this slight inconvenience.

The bus terminal will be on the wrong side of Pennsylvania Avenue but it shouldn't be too difficult to find another location across the street. Meanwhile passengers would simply load and unload at the street side instead of the curb side of buses. And the maneuvering of the big buses around the "triangle" would be ended. West bound buses would turn up Conewango, go over Third to Hickory and down Hickory to Pennsylvania, thence to the terminal. Leaving the terminal they would turn up Liberty to Third and head West again. That's less maneuvering than they now have. In-bound Jamestown and Buffalo buses would turn off Market at Third, go out Third to Hickory, down Hickory to Pennsylvania and thence to the terminal. Going back to Jamestown they would simply go down Pennsylvania to Market and head North. East-bound through busses of course would have a straight shot through on Pennsylvania Avenue.

One-way streets are common in all large cities and are employed many places to relieve difficult through-traffic conditions. A good example that comes to mind is Lancaster where all through traffic is split at the outskirts of the business section. It works like a charm there, and in many other places. Why isn't that the cheap and easy solution for Warren?

Two related adjustments would have to be made by the borough to insure free flow of traffic and maximum safety. First, parking on Conewango from Pennsylvania to Third and on Third for its entire length should be restricted to one side only, probably the East and North sides of these two streets, respectively. Second, traffic lights would have to be synchronized so that, at safe and normal speeds, it will be possible to go through town without long stops and pile-ups at lights. In fact if such coordination of lights were effected now it alone would help matters considerably during the rush hours. Citizen.

Major Flinn Is Speaker For Service

In the third of its series of special Lenten services, the Warren Corps of the Salvation Army will have as its guest speaker, Major Bernard Flinn, of Pittsburgh. This service commences at 7:45 Friday evening and is preceded by an open meeting.

Major B. Flinn is well known in Warren, having served in this community for a number of years. Having a host of friends here, it is expected that many will be in attendance Friday night to hear his message. Since leaving Warren, the major has continued in other centers and has enjoyed a successful ministry. At the present he is stationed at the Pittsburgh Temple Corps.

With the theme of "Christ for the Nation", the motive of this series of meetings is to win souls for Christ. In a special effort to arouse the interest of the people in crusading against sin, crusading against sin.

Accompanying the Major will be Mrs. Flinn and the children. A cordial invitation is given to everybody to worship in this service.

Promotion Of Peace Is Club Study

Kiwanians at their weekly luncheon-meeting at the Hotel Carver on Wednesday were treated to a panel discussion of the topic "What Can We Do To Improve International Relations?" Serving as the panel were Rev. Wayne Furman, Dr. E. S. Briggs, and Alexander Rashid, of Warren, and Rev. Milo Mook, retired Methodist minister of North Grand.

The thought was expressed that we are making some progress through the United Nations Organization, thought by many to be the only hope of obtaining worldwide peaceful relations. Stress was placed on the need of keeping the UNO above partisan politics for the good of this country and the entire world, and the need for people of this country to support the leaders of this peace group.

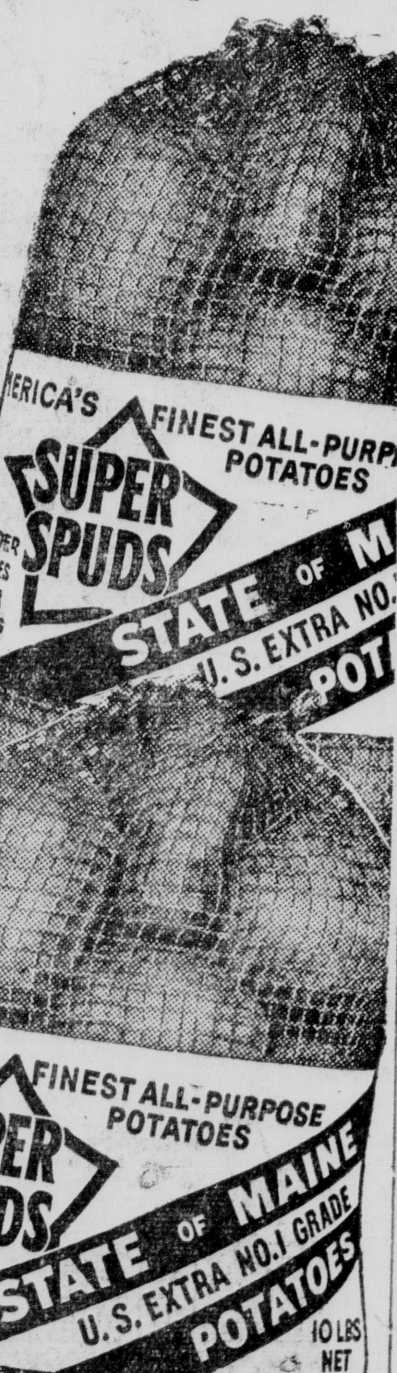

Emphasis was given the statement the public should be careful of news reports which are apt to be dramatic in extent, leading the population to flare into sudden decisions. One should look carefully at such items, reading between the lines and getting all the facts; being such of the true status of the affair and getting both sides of the question. War years were pointed to as an example that the press should abstain from printing such news in sensational fashion.

The thought was advanced that we need more education of peoples of the entire world and the serious need of a religious awakening was expressed; such education making efforts of the war-makers appear absurd if people really understand problems and conditions of all countries of the world. With such understanding, there would be less need of taking up the cudgels of misunderstanding and wars.

Two guests at this week's meeting were Dr. Kenneth Hood, a Kiwanian of the Penn State Agricultural Extension Bureau, and Capt. N. J. Grunzweig, of the local U. S. Army Recruiting Service.

Former Local Athlete To Manage County Ball Team

Al Fischer, former well known local athlete, who has continued similar activities at Duncansville, near Altoona, where he has resided since leaving here, will be in Warren with his K. of C. team enroute to compete in the A. B. C. tournamant at Buffalo, Friday evening, and will perform at the Penn Bowling Center, Al, who bowled in the Elk league, and pitched on semi-pro baseball teams here, has a host of friends who will be glad to greet him.

Irvine Rifle Club Defeated By Bradford

Firing on their home range, the strong Bradford team outpointed the Irvine Rifle Club 953 to 944. It was a case of too much "Swift" for this dead eye marksman tallied 194 out of a possible 200 to lead the field. The locals still hold the edge, however, for the season, as this was Bradford's first win in three starts.

Fischer was recently elected manager of the Duncansville entry in the Blair County Baseball League. Regarding the election the Altoona Mirror says:

Officers were elected and a manager selected for the Duncansville Athletic association, sponsoring a baseball entry in the Blair County Baseball league, an enthusiastic meeting being held last evening at the municipal building at the front.

Alfred Fischer, widely known sports booster in the borough, was elected as manager. Mr. Fischer is president of the school board, sponsor of a bowling entry and closely associated with all sports.

Other directors are Clair Ritchey, Emory Shaw, M. O. Weimer, Alfred Kough and Earl Bowser, Jr. A further meeting will be held on Thursday, March 23 at 8 o'clock in the Firemen's hall. The team will attend the Blair meeting Tuesday at Hollidaysburg.

Junior League baseball aspirants and their dads are invited to the YMCA Tuesday, April 2, at 7:30 p. m. to hear one of baseball's immortals give an account of his diamond exploits of 34 years ago. Our guest of honor will be no other than Hugh Bedient, former big leaguer and the man who during the 1912 world series beat another immortal, Christy Mathewson. Bedient has willingly consented to speak to a gathering of Junior Leaguers here primarily because he firmly believes that baseball builds character and good citizenship in your youngsters. Another guest speaker for the evening will be Mr. Yachim, president of the Jamestown Pony League and holder of its franchise. American League baseball motion pictures will also be shown. These pictures are put out by the American League and show big leaguers in action, how plays should be made, how to slide into the bases, the proper stance at the plate, all phases of the game packed into 30 minutes of sound film, interesting and educational. All potential Junior League baseball players who intend to try out for the various teams are welcome. Dads are urged to come along. The project is sponsored by the Sports Boosters Club. There will also be a discussion on current plans and the Junior League baseball committee of the Boosters Club will be on hand to clarify all points pertaining to sponsorship, eligibility and to answer such questions as might be asked pertaining to the league.

Homestead Up Against Five Canary Vets
By TOM SHRIVER
Harrisburg, March 28—(P)—When Coach Birney Crum sends his Allentown Canaries into the state Class A basketball finals at Philadelphia Saturday night the fans will see a team that combines speed and experience with an airtight defense.

Every man on the Allentown starting team played against Donora at Convention Hall last year in winning the state crown by the narrow margin of 30-28. The victory over last year's western champions marked 17 in a row for the Canaries. Since then the team has added 27 more wins to bring the streak up to 44.

William (Bill) Wanish was the hero of the Donora victory and on the strength of his scintillating work throughout the 1944-45 season won recognition with a place on the Associated Press all-state team. This year Wanish is at center, and playing just as fine a game at the tapoff as he did at forward.

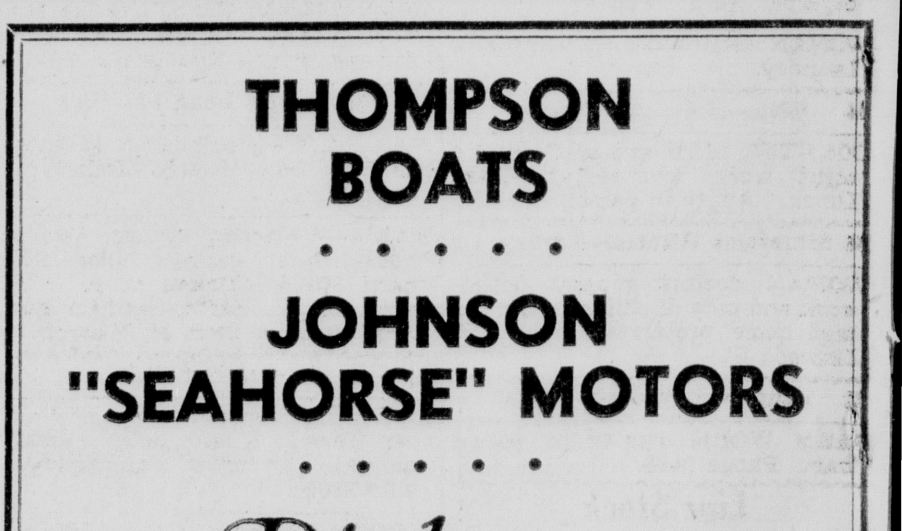

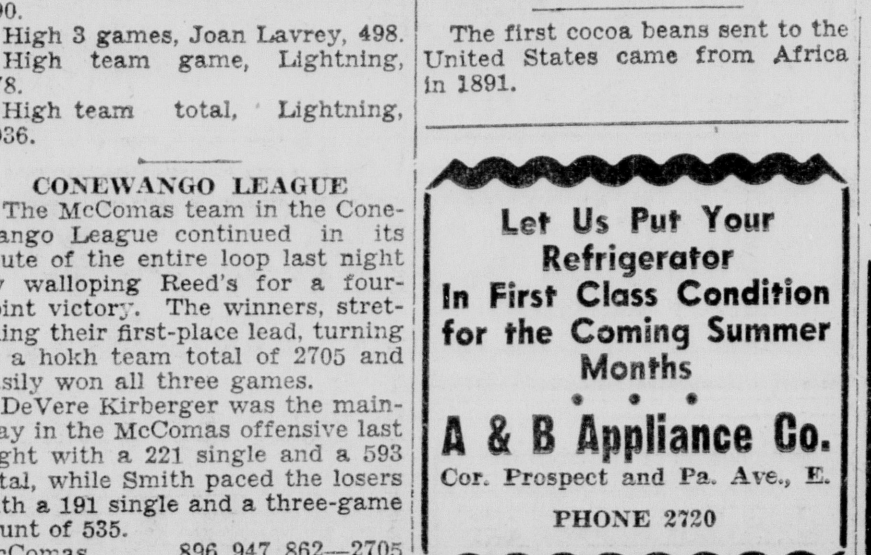

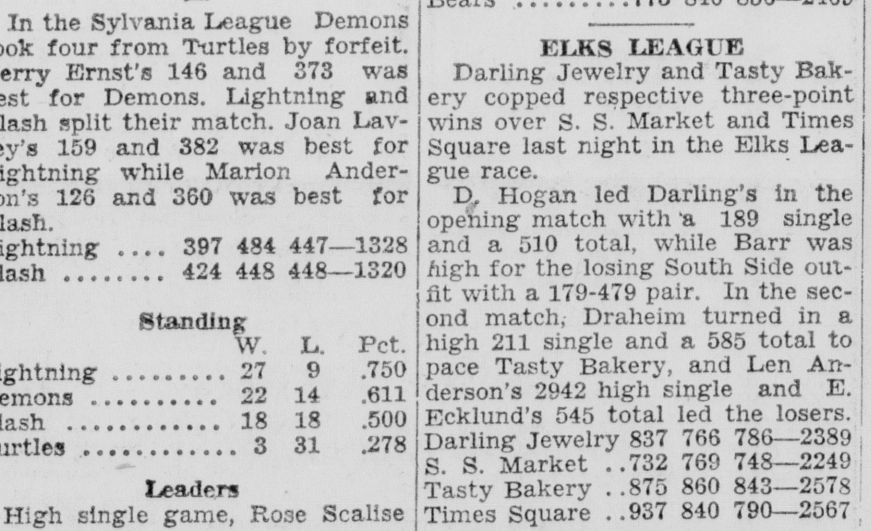

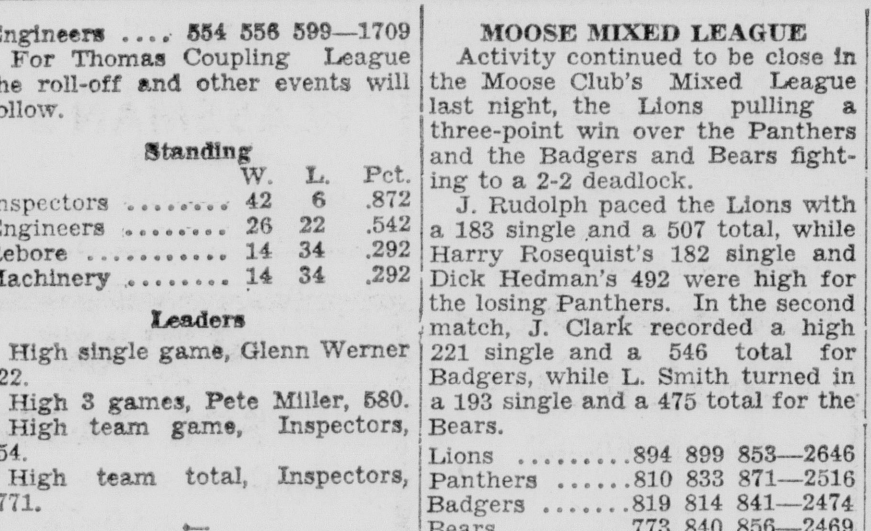

Elmo (Willie) Jackson has moved into the spotlight in the forward court, with the Negro star almost sure of a place on this year's mythical combination. A consistent point maker, he does an excellent job in Allentown's renowned passing attack and is deadly under the basket and on recovery of rebounds. Teamed up at forward with Jackson is Richard (Dick) Hoffman.

Another stalwart is Ray Dini, one of the most versatile of all the Allentown players. An outstanding quarterback in football, quick-thinking Dini does a lot in the backcourt to steady his mates and collects his full share of needed field goals.

Frank Pfeiffer is a real veteran in every sense of the word. He played last year in the championship, then left for service in the armed forces. A discharge during the summer permitted him to re-

Dragons Will Watch State Title Battle

The basketballing Dragons of Warren returned home yesterday afternoon defeated but not disappointed—and scores of local followers were on hand to greet Joe Massa and his cagers and offer their congratulations to one of the school's greatest combats.

Despite their severe 44-13 licking administered by the powerful Homestead quint, the Dragons had consolation in reviewing their year's record—23 victories and four losses. In looking back, the Dragons can pride themselves in breaking all previous advancement records and recording victories over some of the best teams in the area.

A single win over Erie Tech was probably the greatest achievement by the locals, and double wins over Bradford, Kane, and Jamestown also served to point out that the 1945-46 Dragons will go down in history as one of the high school's most outstanding teams.

The Dragon squad will leave either on Friday or Saturday for Philadelphia, where they will watch Allentown and Homestead battle on Saturday night for the state scholastic title.

On their return, the Dragons will be hosts to a number of banquets honoring the team and its staff, particularly Coach Joe Massa. The Rotary Club will laud the team on Monday and on Wednesday the Kiwanians will pay honors. The team will be guest at the City League banquet on Monday night, also.

1945-46 Champ To Be Lauded Monday Night

The Sylvania Electric, 1945 City Basketball League champs, will be honored at the 4th annual YMCA-City League banquet which is to be held on Monday, April 1, at the Y. All players, managers, officials, and sponsors of the league will attend the dinner, which is scheduled for 6:30.

The City League will also pay due honor on this occasion to the players, managers, and coaches of the championship Warren Dragons, who have been invited to the banquet as special guests of the league.

Gerry Archibald, who has long been associated with Warren basketball, will relate some of his experiences in the sporting world and will present the members of the Sylvania team with handsome individual basketball charms.

Toastmaster chores for Monday's annual sporting meet will be in the hands of Jiggs Bonavita, another member of Warren's well known sporting fraternity.

New Flower Shop Opens With Most Attractive Blooms

An addition to the business life of the city that fills a want of many years is the Virg-Ann Flower Shop located on Pennsylvania avenue in the Beckley Building. The new shop is open and is enjoying a brisk trade as Warren flower lovers are finding there desired flowers at prices that are most satisfying.

The new store is owned by Angelo Dicembre and Sheldon Johnson, of Jamestown, both of whom have had years of experience in the handling of cut and potted flowers and plants. Mr. Johnson is the son of the owner of one of Jamestown's largest greenhouses where all of the plants offered for sale at the new store are grown.

Attractive in its cool green shade, the sales room is inviting. Cases contain scores of containers for potted plants and cut flowers and especial attention is given baskets for new babies, etc. A specialty is being made of floral designs for funerals, banquets, center pieces for parties, corsages and bridal bouquets. A feature is the handling of orders in a short space of time and courteous attention is given all, both large and small purchasers.

Comfort is accented in the store and a maple desk and chair afford space for the composing of sentiments for enclosure cards while a rustic settee and chair offer rest for those desiring it.

Warren is welcoming the new business place and already liberal patronage has been afforded. Mr. and Mrs. Dicembre are in charge of the store and they cordially invite flower lovers to visit the store and enjoy and inspect the blossoms even though no purchase is made.

'Bares' Red Agent

Stamp News

ON THE basis of present prices, philatelic-minded admirers of the late President Roosevelt can build up at a nominal cost a specialized collection of stamps issued in his honor. Latest of the Roosevelt memorial stamps to reach the market are Haiti's two gray-black airmails similar in design, illustrated below.

Of the 15 stamps issued by this country and Liberia, Greece and Haiti to honor the late President, only one, Liberia's 70-cent airmail, sells now for more than one dollar for single copies or sets. The Liberian stamp is quoted at more than $3 although two regular postage values of the same set sell for less than 25 cents. The Haitian stamps are priced by dealers at less than 50 cents and the three Greek stamps at less than $1. The United States stamps—the memorial set of four and the five-cent United Nations Conference stamp bearing his name—can be obtained at face value, of course.

A Roosevelt collection also properly should include seven other stamps bearing his portrait but not issued to mark his death. These are Guatemala's 1938 souvenir sheet commemorating the 150th anniversary of the United States constitution, Brazil's 1940 stamp marking the 50th anniversary of the Pan-American Union, Turkey's 1939 U. S. Constitution commemorative issue which pictured Mr. Roosevelt on two stamps and Colombia's three overprints issued last summer to mark the victory over Germany.

INVESTIGATION of the possibility of making the honorable discharge emblem stamp bi-colored is one reason given by Post Office Department officials for the delay in announcing the design and other details of the forthcoming three-cent stamp. A departure from customary three-cent stamps, the two-colored stamp would present the discharge emblem in its gold color.

Meanwhile, first day sale figures for the Merchant Marine stamp place it second among the stamps of the Armed Service series in total covers cancelled and third in stamps sold. The 432,242 covers cancelled ranks behind only the Navy commemorative while the total of 2,295,575 stamps sold was surpassed only by the two Jima Marine and the Army stamps.

WARTIME overprint on four Bulgarian stamps picturing King Boris urged the Bulgars to "Collect Every Kind of Rags," "Collect Old Iron," and "Collect Discarded Paper." The Dominican Republic has issued four postage and one airmail stamp to commemorate adoption of its national anthem. Swiss postal authorities have authorized the dual designation of "Biel-Bienne" as the postmark for the manufacturing city of Biel because of its large number of French-speaking residents. Martinez Enriquez Irigoyen, credited with founding Mexico's postal service, is pictured on a new eight centavos black stamp of Mexico.

YOUNGSVILLE NEWS

Youngsville, March 27.—The installation dinner for the Youngsville Order of the Eastern Star was held Friday at 6 P. M. at the Pittsfield Inn. JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

Much time and effort has been put on the Junior Class play of Youngsville high school which will be presented on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week, March 28th and 29th. The play, a comedy of unusual interest, is called "Girl Shy" and gives plenty of opportunity for good acting and clever humorous scenes. The time is 8 p. m. in the high school auditorium.

TO HONOR SERVICE MEN

A banquet to welcome returned service men on the Honor Roll of the United Brethren church is being held Saturday evening at 6:30 p. m. March 30th in the United Brethren church. A fine dinner is being planned and an interesting program expressing appreciation for the service of the boys and the joy of their friends for their return to our community. The out of town speaker of the evening will be Rev. Edward K. Rogers of Warren former U. S. army chaplain. The church is very desirous that all of the returned boys on their honor roll are present.

PROMOTION

Friends of Major Gerald B. Russell, son of Mrs. Nora Russell and the late Lyman L. Russell of Youngsville, who was recently decorated by the British Government in Washington in a ceremony conducted by Earl of Halifax, British Ambassador to United States, will be interested to know that since receiving this honor he has been promoted. He has now the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in the International Division of the Army Service Forces.

GRANGE GROWING

Brokenstraw Grange with Robert Albright of Youngsville Master is making a rapid growth. 1st and 2nd degrees were conferred this week Tuesday on a class of more than thirty new members. At a previous meeting this month March 12 two new members received the 3rd and 4th degrees which was followed by a social time and a tureen luncheon.

The treasurer of the Grange received a boost last Thursday evening when a pancake supper was well attended in the Grange Hall. Brokenstraw Grangers joined Warren Grange in the presentation of a Sheaf of Wheat to the Diamond Grange. This was the first of a series of Neighbor night meetings planned for Warren County.

Bamboo grows rapidly, often attaining a height of 50 feet or more within five or six weeks.

The name of the cauliflower is derived from the Latin "caulis" (cabbage) and "flos" (flower).

The STAMP Of Public Approval

In June, 1933—when Metzger-Wright's had reached the ripe young age of 37—we took one of the decisive steps of our merchandising history.

We introduced our own Metzger-Wright Discount Stamps.

No decision we have made since our beginning in 1896 has proved so far-reaching in its effects. Discount Stamps became immediately popular. Within a few months the great majority of our customers had the little yellow Stamp Books in their possession, and were making good use of them. Not only in Warren Borough, not only in Warren County, but throughout northwest Pennsylvania, individuals and families were becoming Stamp-conscious.

Now, Stamps are not a new idea. They were not new in 1933. You'll find them in many stores, in many cities. You'll find Green Stamps, Blue Stamps, and no doubt Pink and Lavender Stamps. Most of them are issued by the individual stores, under a franchise from large profit-making Stamp Companies which operate on a nation-wide basis.

Metzger-Wright Stamps are exclusively our own. No outside Company has anything to do with them. There are no showy premiums connected with them. They are issued by us, printed to our specifications, and distributed on terms determined by us alone. They are Metzger-Wright Stamps—for Metzger-Wright customers.

There is nothing complicated about them. With each 10c cash purchase or with each 10c paid on account by the 15th of the following month, you receive one Discount Stamp. You paste this in a Stamp Book which has been presented to you without charge. When the book is full—that is, when you have accumulated stamps representing $100 worth of purchases—your book is ready for redemption. We will give you $2.00 in cash for it, or $2.50 in merchandise. That's absolutely all there is to it.

Thus Discount Stamps represent a discount of 2% (or 2½%) to those who pay cash, or pay their bills promptly. Most customers regard their Stamp redemptions as a form of bonus which permits them to buy some little luxury they might otherwise have denied themselves. In thirteen years of Discount Stamp activity we have never had a single complaint as to the functioning of the Discount Stamp Plan; though stamps representing several millions of dollars have been distributed.

Have you a Stamp Book? If not, better get one. Stamps, too, are part of our policy of
